RECENT SUCCESS: OUTPLACEMENT

THE SITUATION:

Due to restructuring of the management, our client was downsized from his Key Account Manager position at a major toy manufacturer located in the Midwest. After a fifteen year career with the firm, the individual faced locating a new position in an unfamiliar job market. To add further frustration to the situation, this was the only company for which the client had worked since graduating college.

THE SOLUTION:

The client approached Advantegrity, LLC to assist in his outplacement services because he had a prior relationship with our senior staff. We immediately began our career coaching program and the Advantegrity 100™ process. Our career coaching program included executive coaching, interview preparation, development of a networking plan, revising their existing resume, creating cover letters and assisting in the selection of references. Our Advantegrity 100™ process targeted the top one hundred companies within similar industries throughout the country.

THE RESULT:

As a result of our outplacement services, the client accepted a position as a Vice President at a company within a similar industry. Due to the individual's background, the transition was made quickly and easily. The client was so pleased with the services provided by Advantegrity, LLC, that they recommended us to a former co-worker also in need to outplacement services.
